

KMSU's 'Five Count' to interview Kyle Gass of Tenacious D

MANKATO — Kyle Gass of the band Tenacious D will be interviewed 11 p.m. Saturday, June 5, on KMSU Radio's "The Five Count," according to co-hosts Dustin Wilmes and Juston Cline.

Tenacious D is made up of Gass and Hollywood moviestar and comedian

Jack Black, who has starred in numerous films, including "High Fidelity," "School of Rock" and "Shallow Hal."

The 17-year-old hard rock/comedy rock band's discography includes "Tenacious D" in 2001 and "The Pick of Destiny" in 2006.